

Leach Library Enrichment 2019 Courses

Welcome to a whole new year of enrichment through the Leach Public Library! Here's what's going on beginning in February:

3-D Design & Printing (for grades 1-4, Mondays at IVS): Design and model objects on the computer and then print them using a 3-D printer and colored filament to create cool take-home projects that you can use! With Chris Chichester.

Yoga (for grades 4-8, Mondays at Studio 26): Learn the basics of yoga in this Mind & Movement series class. With a grant from North Country Federal Credit Union, we have brand new mats and blocks for our yoga students! With Marger Maldonado.

Hair Maintenance & Styling (for grades 1-4, Tuesdays at IVS): Have a blast learning all sorts of great hair-styles and maintenance methods in this hands-on class! With Ann Howland.

Yoga: Animal Poses! (for grades 1-4, Wednesdays at Studio 26): Learn how to move like your favorite animals in this Mind & Movement series class! New mats and blocks! With Marger Maldonado.

Journey into Jewelry (for grades 1-8, Thursdays at Studio 26): this course is designed to give students the foundation of jewelry making using techniques such as beading, wire wrapped stones, and even making your very own ceramic beads and pendants. We will be creating unique necklaces and bracelets that each student can take home. Sketchbook designs will be brought to life in this hands-on crafting journey. With Gretchen Bittner.

Outdoor Adventuring! (for grades 1-8, Thursdays at IVS): Trek outdoors to make forts, hike, play games, sled, and more! You'll go on a new adventure each class. This is a high interest, and movement-filled class!! With Ann and Tim Howland.
